You Light My Fire

Nate Ruess

I wanna throw the fight and kiss away your pain tonight
But that would only make this harder
She can't stand to sleep alone
Oh no and I hate losing so
I wait till we get tiredWell the could outside knows we can't be alone
So I throw my arms right beside hers
Then I close my eyes lean in for something more
And you light my fireAs your heartbeat keeps me warm
We take Fourth Street cross corners to the bar
Where I slurred convinced we could make it brighterI know we're not as young as we'd like to be
But I like to think you're bound to get the best of me
C'mon babe your love gets me highI know one day I'll fall for an oath
I just spend all my life trying to find her
But I burned down every door I'd ever shut
When you light my fireI wanna throw the fight and kiss away your pain tonight
But that would only make this betterI know one day I'll fall for an oath
I just spend all of my life on the run looking over my shoulder
Now I burn down every door I ever shut
When you light my fire
