[Verse 1: Jay Jones]

Mean mitch, I get plenty bands

I ain't never been a minute man

I ain't never been a cheese eater

Yall looking like Packers fans

Hollygrove, thats Pakistan

AK, thats a half a man

Let it rip, they ain't have a chance

Won't make it to the ambulance

YM double O, we the business

Up in traffic with me the nigga

You ain't Stevie, you see a nigga

Slick side, won't be a nigga

I ain't been up in the city lately

Bitches say im acting shitty lately

Got me working off of two phones

Got this rap shit going crazy

I dont really like to waste time

Grab that from the waistline

Make it boom like a bassline

Long flights through a grey sky

I was chillin on Biscane

Got a text about the dick game

From my bitch out in NY

Tryna take me to the Knicks game

Ain't it crazy how shit change

Ain't it crazy how a bitch change

One week you they MCM

Next week you a big lame

Yall hoes crazy yall hoes childish

All my partners they tote choppers

Drink lean out the whole bottle

She juggle balls she a globe trotter

White girl want a coke shower
More money thats more problems
More caine i sold out it
Doors open its so cloudy
I gotta juice, ready for take off
Sending hits they talking Adolf
Im a pit im talking j dog
What the fuck im at the A loft
Real nigga all day and tomorrow
Business busy i ain't finna call you
Blowing up know you feeling awful
Blowing up know you feeling awful
Been thru old hoes i got new flames
On snakes alley i blew flame
[?] on magic city i fuck good at these new thangs
Thats all facts all true
One call and i fall through
Niggas broke sitting inside sending out tweets thats what yall do
Woo, Im good in the South, West, and the Eastside, how about you?
