

Constable Care

Frenzal Rhomb

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I thought you were by my side before I had to run and hide from the caring constabulary they're there to protect you and me How can you be justified making money from people's lives we don't believe in what you say you broke my arm/legs but that's O.K.
I got the fuck kicked out of me by constable care
