Where The Light Gets Lost

Slow Club

I know how the story goes flown from the flagpole at dawn I had my chance and tried to let you know I had my chance and this is letting goBut you could be patient babe or run away might never learn the cost I'm sorry I could never answer
where the light gets lost I'm still sat here waiting up not sure if I should go and search for you yet keep thinking that my luck is running up so maybe I should just place the betBut I keep on wading out it's good enough for now but which stream can you trust I'm sorry I could never answer
where the light gets lost That's us out in the virgin snow playfully trading blows and taking when we must I'm sorry I could never answer where the light gets lost
where the light gets lost
