You Are the One (Static & Shine Extended Mix)

C21

I will do anything for youIt's early in the morning
Another day is gone
I can't wait to feel your arms around me - again
I believe that we could lay down the world
Together we could live the dream
That never endsOpen up the door
Just a little more
And baby let me inYou are the one, you are the one
Who can make moments last forever
The one that makes the sunshine
Wherever you goYou are the one, why make it harder
Than it has to be?
Just be sound
I'll give you love,
If you give me your heart
(You are the one)Everytime I'm near you
Time is standing still
There's nothing you can't fixs with your heavenly smile (no no)
I would never leave you
My love is for life
So taking things for granted
Was never my stileJust give a little love, say you'll never stop
I'll do anythingYou are the one, you are the one
Who can makes moments last forever
The one that makes the sunshine
Wherever you goYou are the one, why make it harder
Than it has to be?
Just be sound
I'll give you love,
If you give me your heart(Why make it harder?)I'll do anything (if you give me your heart)
If you give me your heartI'll do anythingYou are the one, you are the one
Who can makes moments last forever
The one that makes the sunshine
Wherever you go
