Lightning cross the way
No, I can't rest, been up for weeks
The words they come in close
They got a nerve, it never sleeps for me

I say I rake in ruins of gold
And I crawl down to my knees
A mile deep in the coward and crime
I left my head, came off with the sign

Ba ba ba da da, ba ba ba da da
Ba ba ba da da, ba ba ba da da
Burning close, jump into the fire
And light this shit up like the Fourth of July

Lonely cat-like master
Jump in, take me faster
I've been sidetracked doubt me
Under the score, joining the war without me

I can't recite the names
Or events that come to me
A blur of times and dates
That a drink or two or three will mean

I walk these streets of gold
And the smoke goes on my feet
Cross defy the land and mines
I awake the gad and skin to breathe

Ba ba ba da da, ba ba ba da da
Ba ba ba da da, ba ba ba da da
Burning close, jump into the fire
And light this shit up like the Fourth of July

Lonely cat-like master
Jump in, take me faster
I've been sidetracked doubt me
Under the score, joining the war without me

Lightning cross the way
No, I can't rest, been up for weeks
The words they come in close
They've got a nerve, it never sleeps for me

Lonely cat-like master
Jump in, take me faster
I've been sidetracked doubt me
Under the score, joining the war without me
