Drop To Zero

Trust Company

Drop to zero, drop(It's happening again)
I feel boxed in
(It's happening again)
I'm trapped inside
(It's happening again)
Feels like the world's closing in
(It's happening again)
And there's nowhere to hideThis time nothing feels right to me
I'm sinking deeper within
I'll wait for you to lose sight of me
Before I suffer again(It's happening again)
I feel strapped down
(It's happening again)
While you feed the disease
(It's happening again)
I'm lying face on the ground
(It's happening again)
For the whole world to seeThis time nothing feels right to me
I'm sinking deeper within
I'll wait for you to lose sight of me
Before I suffer againDrop, drop, drop to zero
Drop, drop
Now I'm so far awayThis time nothing feels right to me
I'm sinking deeper within
I'll wait for you to lose sight of me
Before I suffer again
Now I'm so far away
Now I'm so far away
Now I'm so far away
