

Questions for an Ex-Lover

Love Is a Story

Did he sweep you off your feet?
Did he bring you to your knees?
Did he kiss
just like you dreamed?
And do you still taste the way you seem?
Does he know
you like to dance?
Are his steps in time? Does he make you laugh? Did he pour your favorite drink?
Does he like the way you think?
Is this what you want? Is it gonna last and...Is it a long road To your door?
And do you love me anymore?
With my eyes closed
I can still see
A time back when I meant to you Everything that you still mean to me And when he's around Is
it hard to breathe?
Does he make you happy
So you don't wanna leave?
And
when you're with him
Do you ever think of me?
Or have you forgotten
How it used to be When it was you and me? I shouldn't ask that It's just a bad habit
I shouldn't ask that Forgive me, forgive me I shouldn't ask that It's such a bad habit
I shouldn't ask that Forgive me, forgive

meBut it's a long road
To your door
When you don't love me anymore
And
with my eyes closed
I can still see
A time back when I meant to you Everything that you still mean to me
