Legion

HammerFall

In the eternal battle of supreme [Incomprehensible] absolute evil
The beast always triumphs
My name is Legion, for we are manyThe war still remains, no kingdom on earth
There's only pure evil, indifference to birth
In the tombs of the dead one man breeds alone
The unearthly warfare shadows the throneThree temptations written down
The lust of flesh, lust of the eyes
Finally the pride of lifeThe demon twelve, the hell hounds
My name is Legion, for we are many spirits inside of one
To build a land of chaos brought forth from the abyss
My name is Legion, and we bring destruction and deathPossessing his soul, the curse of the damned
A tormented victim, to the bottom he's slammed
One man stands alone trapped, under a spell
Encounter your demons, send them to hellNo temptations left to fend, sanctified, Anti-Christ
Casting shadows towards the crossThe demon twelve, the hell hounds
My name is Legion, for we are many spirits inside of one
To build a land of chaos brought forth from the abyss
My name is Legion, and we bring destruction and deathThe demon twelve, the hell hounds
My name is Legion, for we are many spirits inside of one
To build a land of chaos brought forth from the abyss
My name is Legion, and we bring destruction and death
