

Midnight Snack

Jerkcurb

I snuck a snack under my duvet
Peanut butter and jelly makes my bed feel much less empty
When I'm alone seems like the stars
Out my window match the sugar of my cake
Driving through space drifting me far away like a flying saucer
My midnight snack I can't feel the crumbs
Stick to my back just tasting my dream jar
Eat what you want
(Fades away)
