San Antone Alone

Jason Meadows

I knew her Daddy was a preacher man
When I asked him for his daughter's hand
Said fire and brimstone was made for me
The answers no and now you can leaveBut I aint leaving San Antone alone
You can pray and pray but you won't pray me gone
The lords done told me son just (? hold your own/hunger on)
So I aint leaving San Antone aloneI went and told her what her Daddy said
She started cryin cause her hurt her bad
Girl dry those eyes show some faith in me
This lovin heart can guaranteeI aint leaving San Antone alone
He can pray and pray but he won't pray me gone
The lords done told me son just (? hold your own/hunger on)
So I aint leaving San Antone aloneWell what I forgot to say
I left your Daddy's place
Your Momma followed me outside
She said don't pay him no mind
Just give me tonight
Me and the Lords gonna show him a signI aint leaving San Antone alone
I got my baby and her younger brother Joe
Her Mom and Daddy are following me
To a little church in the hills of TennesseeI aint leaving San Antone alone
You can prayand pray but he won't pray me gone
The lords done told me son just (? hold your own/hunger on)
So I aint leaving San Antone aloneI aint leaving San Antone alone
