

O Hai!

Built to be Broken

Sometimes I try to say hello
But the words get stuck in my head
And when I try to let you know
Fate conspires again I know theres something
Something inside me
That wants to call you home
But I when I try to
Talk to or nd you
All that comes is So I say Hey!
Hey
I say Hey!
Hey Sometimes I want to let you know
That I didnt mean what I said
But when I try to let you know
Its like my mouth gets sewn with thread I know theres something
Something inside me
That wants to call you home
But I when I try to
Talk to or nd you
All that comes is So I say Hey!
Hey
I say Hey!
Hey So I gotta let you know
That I need for you to stay
Cause its whenever that you go
That I lose myself again
