Missing Me

Keyshia Cole

Said I'm no good without you
And I couldn't do better
Tryna make me feel so lost without you
And all the things that you told me,
Tryna killing me softly
Guess I just didn't know enough about you, yeah
When I think about what we had,
I can't help but get so mad
'Cause we could never get it back
When I trusted you like that

Who do you think you are?
To say that you are the best that I ever had
Who do you think you are?
To say that you are the best that I ever had

Oh, I bet you're missing me now
That my love ain't around
Oh, no
Said I was so unlucky, yeah damn right, I must be
If no one else could love me like you loved me, yeah
But I was scared of being lonely,
Thinking you were right for me
But you just didn't know enough about me, yeah
When I think about what we had,
I begin to get so mad, 'cause we could never get it back
When I trusted you like that

Who do you think you are? (Do you think you are?)
To say that you are the best that I ever had
Who do you think you are (Tell me)
To say that you are the best that I ever had

I kept on loving you, (I kept on loving you)
Baby after all you took me through,
After all the things you took me through (Took me through)
I don't know why I miss you but I do, (I do)
What I wanna know from you (you) ooh, is

Who do you think you are? (Do you think you are)
To say that you are the best that I ever had?
Why would you hurt me like that?
Who do you think you are?
To say that you are the best that I ever had
Oh, I bet you're missing me now
That my love ain't around
Love ain't around, oh no
Who do you think you are?
I bet you're missing me now, I know you're missing me now,
That my love ain't around, oh oh
