

Can't Stay The Same

Saves the Day

Go if you wanna go
Dont wanna lie here while you cry yourself to sleep
And say what you wanna say
Cause I can see by your face that somethings not the sameHey, hey everythings okay
I love you more than I can say
But we cant stay the same
Yeah!Do what you wanna do
Dont wanna keep you here holding so tight you cant breathe
And stay another minute stay
Cause I dont think I wanna live here dying all aloneHey, hey everythings okay
I love you more than I can say
But we cant stay the same
Yeah!Well Ive been thinking about the words Ive said before
When I was locked outside and pounding on the door
I wish I said I'm sorry, sweetheart I can't be the man Ive lead you to believe that I would be.
Somewhere deep inside I know theres something wrong
I know youre never safe around me anymoreWell hey everythings okay
I love you more than I can say
But we cant stay the same
Yeah!Hey, hey everythings okay
I love you more than I can say
But we cant stay the same
Yeah!
