Nobody Wins

Radney Foster

You said this ain't over yet
I've said things that I'll regret
Won't be easy to forget
Scars take time to healBefore another bitter word gets used
I was hoping we could call a truce'Cause nobody wins, we both lose
Hearts get broken and love gets bruised
When we light that same old fuse
Again and againNobody wins, slammin' doors
We both lost this fight before
And I won't play that game no more
'Cause nobody winsDarlin', we got too much pride
It don't matter whose wrong or right
Honey, love ain't black and white
It's the way I feel bout youAll I want to do is hold you tight
I can't take another angry nightNobody wins, we both lose
Hearts get broken and love gets bruised
When we light that same old fuse
Again and againNobody wins, slammin' doors
We both lost this fight before
And I won't play that game no more
'Cause nobody winsI know something's 'bout to break if we don't bend
Baby, what's it gonna takeNobody wins, we both lose
Hearts get broken and love gets bruised
When we light that same old fuse
Again and againNobody wins, slammin' doors
We both lost this fight before
And I won't play that game no more
'Cause nobody wins
Nobody wins, nobody winsNobody wins
