As You Sleep

Psyclon Nine

Close your eyes
Lullabies fill your room
And I will be swimming
Sing to only you
And I will be singingDon't forget I'll hold you head
Wach the night sky fading red
But as you sleep
And no one is listening
And keep you from sinking
I will left you off your feet
Don't you wake up yet
'Cause soon I'll be leaving you
But you won't be leaving meIn the car
The radio keeps me searching for your star
A constellation of frustration
Singing my thoughts back to me
Driving hard
Like watching heartache on TVI will lift you off your feet
But as you sleep
And no one is listening
And keep you from sinking
Don't you wake up yet
'Cause soon I'll be leaving youBut you won't be leaving me
Singing my thoughts back to me
Like watching heartache on TVAnd don't forget I'll hold your head
Watch the night sky fading redAnd no one is listening
I will lift you off your feet
But as you sleep
And keep you from sinking
Don't you wake up yet
But you won't be leaving me'Cause soon I'll be leaving you
Soon I'll be leaving you
