Come On

Will Young

Walk Away
That's what you do
And it looks like i'm Somebody you once knew
Your caught in a corner
With nowhere to hide you eyes
Do you think you wanna
Say Goodbye
Hey
Always the last to say
Everything makes you feel
Like a walking away
Come on Come on Come on Come on
Hey
Always the last to say
Everything makes you feel
Like a walking away
Come on Come on Come on Come on
There's a bit of me
That will always be with you
And something tells me
This is love were due
Hey
Always the last to say
Everything makes you feel
Like a walking away

Come on Come on Come on Come on
Hey
Always the last to say
Everything makes you feel
Like a walking away
Come on Come on Come on Come on
Come On Come On Come On Come On Come On Come On Come On
