

Breathless

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

We pass through like a nightmare falling down
Without touching the ground
These ghost and vacant eyes deceive thee
Theyve come to take me without words and silence
With a hand now crushing hope this late kiss
Youve come to make this my last night home
We're promised everything the necklace and those things you made
Will go with me an everywhere I go
Its not the end, I won't pretend its impossible
To fix what cant be broke
Im breathless and disconnected
Take me home so far away from here
Take me slow, I cant stand one more year
Take my breath away, wake me up today
I will return for you
Well, now Ive seen the world through eyes of bitter hate
And lies and now, I cant stand what I have become
Was there something I missed? Can you replay this kiss?
And the ghost sought by my side
Im breathless and disconnected
Take me home so far away from here
Take me slow, I cant stand one more year
Take my breath away, wake me up today
I will return for you
Take me home so far away from here
Take me slow, I cant stand one more year
Take my breath away, wake me up today
I will return for you
I won't forget those times we spent
Cutting our silhouette, waking up nights again
I am afraid because Im open and undone
I wont forget those things you said
A stab to the heart and head, killing without an end
I am afraid because Im open and undone
Take me home so far away from here
Take me slow, I cant stand one more year
Take my breath away, wake me up today
I will return for you
Take me home so far away from here
Take me slow, I cant stand one more year
Take my breath away, wake me up today
I will return for you
We pass through like a nightmare falling down

Without touching the ground
These ghost and vacant eyes deceive thee
Theyve come to take me without words and silence
