What I've Wanted to Say

Far

The best and the worst of me at the same time Make a tin cans with strings to you, let you know I really mean it all And the more I say it the more I just sound like a carnival barker yelling selling art Just don't worry about looking dumb, I do it all the time, it's actually pretty fun and whatever, it's overblown, as relative as hot and cold and good and bad and young and old Do anything, there's no wrong, it's all right
This is what I've wanted to say this whole time I wish for you what I wish for me the flashlight, the means, the reason, the medium I will say this, will you listen?
If you don't listen I don't mind I'll still say it if you don't listen
If you don't listen I don't mind
This is what I've wanted to say this whole time
