The Expendables

The fire, desire
We still perspire even though we're tired
The fire, desire
We still perspire even though we're tired
The bed stays shaking 24/7
Breathing on my neck yes I was in heaven
The bed stays shaking 24/7
Breathing on my neck yes I was in heaven

Did I tell you I miss those days
I'm caught in a reminiscent haze
Cigarettes late night drinking
No fuss no fight
It's just heavy heavy vibe pounding from your eyes
To let me know girl you want me in your thighs
So lay down close for a little while
I know this love will never ever retire
Cause your always hungry girl
Hungry for my love
So come on little girl you got to give me some

The fire, desire
We still perspire even though we're tired
The fire, desire
We still perspire even though we're tired
The bed stays shaking 24/7
Breathing on my neck yes I was in heaven
The bed stays shaking 24/7
Breathing on my neck yes I was in heaven

Even when the lights go out
You would always scream and shout
Give it to me anyway
I know this would catch up some day
A sex Machine I could always call you
Don't deny it, don't even try it
Cause you're always waiting to get the show on the road
With the nutty feeling it was time to unload

The anticipation, then penetration, always down for a sexual sensation

The fire, desire
We still perspire even though we're tired
The fire, desire
We still perspire even though we're tired
The bed stays shaking 24/7
Breathing on my neck yes I was in heaven
The bed stays shaking 24/7
Breathing on my neck yes I was in heaven
