

Violin

Kate Bush

Four strings across the bridge
Ready to carry me over
Over the quavers, drunk in the bars
Out of the realm of the orchestra
Out of the realm of the orchestra Filling me up with the shivers
Filling me up with the shivers and quivers
Filling me up with the shivers Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin
Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin Paganini up on the chimney, Lord of the dance
With Nero and old Nicky, whack that devil into my fiddlestick
Give me the banshees for B.V.'s
Give me the banshees for B.V.'s Jigging along with the fiddle, oh, Johnny
Jigging along with the fiddle-dee-dee
Jigging along with the fiddle-dee-diddle-dee-dee Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin
Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin Jigging along with the fiddle, oh, Johnny
Jigging along with the fiddle, oh, Johnny
Jigging along with the fiddle-dee-diddle-dee-dee Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin
Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin
Get the bow going, let it scream to me
Violin, violin, violin
