

Mistletoe

Indigo Girls

Hey I thought you'd know
That a kiss under the mistletoe
Would walk out through the snow
Angel can't you see the stars
That lights through the trees
Are beckoning us to go
Everyone has gone to sleep (please baby please)
Peace be with me Please baby please
Please baby please
Just let this love be Oh Mr. Bear's tucked in tight
Somewhere wouldn't it be
Sweet to sleep for awhile
And to see this as a reason
To bow to the seasons
And just give them time
Everyone has gone to sleep (please baby please)
Peace be with me Please baby please
Please baby please
Just for now, just for love
While the yule fire burns on
Just let this love be Please baby please (wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for awhile)
Please baby please (wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for awhile)
Please baby please (wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for awhile) Thought you the kiss and the mistletoe
