Dive In

Alisha's Attic

Dive in and show me your depth
Can you look inside an angels eyes and see a wave of fear?
Something may not be as pure as she would
Have you think, my dear
Don't expect too much from her
'Cause she might just break your back
Before you've inspected her from head to toe
No, don't expect too much from her
'Cause she might just smile the sweetest smile
And you would melt into her, you're a weak puppy again
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
My heart's an open book
But can you read between the lines?
Can you escape my demons
For the price of a kiss, so deep?
You'll wonder where you found
This hippy, trippy girl
Don't expect too much from her
'Cause her thoughts are sometimes quite unsaint like
She thinks she wants you but she doesn't know
No, don't expect too much from her
'Cause she might convince you she feels it
But it's hidden somewhere crazy
Deep down in the bottom of her soul
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
You want to get high, you want to give in
I'll let you confess, you feel it within
You want to get high, you want to give in
I'll let you confess, you'll feel it within
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real

Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know the way I feel
Air, air, dive in if you wanna know that this is real
