

You Will Be Loved Again

Cowboy Junkies

How could he take you in his arms
And help you to be free
Then leave you forgotten and is it enough to cry?
When you're so broken
Her cold eyes tell you that you're not welcome
She tells lies but you'll take her back again
And is it enough to die?
When you're so broken
And you will be loved again
You will be loved again

But will she sing and will she dance
And will she forever?
But will he sing and will he dance
And will he forever?
Someday you will feel a love so deep
And you'll find someone not lost in sleep
And you will be loved again
You will be loved again
You will be loved again
