

What You Owe

Sarah Dashew

I had some time to think about you
While you were flying off to Rome
I was thinking all the places
I've been without you
Since I used to call you home
Fly away in your silver plane
Farther than you can see
I just wish you would find someone else to blame
Instead of always blaming me

If you're gone, say goodbye
If you come back, come back smiling
If you come back, come back with what you owe
But if you want to go, go

I'm not so far away that I don't hear rumors
About how hard you've gone back
Man, I hear you're doing cocaine
And it makes me so sad
I feel like I can feel you fighting
All across the continents, all across the world
Through all the time zones, all the zip codes
I hear you yelling out
I feel your anger swirl

If you're gone, say goodbye
If you come back, come back smiling
If you come back, come back with what you owe
But if you want to go, go

You know I love you
You know I do
But that's not say that I'm not still mad at you
'Cause I'm still mad at you
I'm still mad at you
I'm still mad at you
Still mad at you
Still mad
Sometimes I think I understand everything
But sometimes I know I don't

Sometimes I know exactly what you keep on digging
And why I know I won't
I know I won't
Ohhh

If you're gone, say goodbye
If you come back, come back smiling
If you come back, come back with what you owe
But if you want to go, go
