

Unnecessarily Mercenary

Bonnie Raitt

You're just into looking after number 1
Only thing you worry bout is having your fun
First sign of trouble it's understood You'll get going while the goings still good You're so very unnecessarily mercenary You're a secret agent got a hidden agenda
Got me in your sights, think I'm a real big spender Stick around, baby, pretty soon you'll see
I ain't got no money but my love's for free You're so very unnecessarily mercenary You're a gun for hire when a war breaks out
Loving on the front line till the money runs out
Finger on the trigger, baby, pull it and see
If your mercenary tactics gonna work on me You're a gun for hire when a war breaks out
Loving on the front line till the money runs out
Your fingers on the trigger, baby, pull it and see
If your mercenary tactics gonna work on me You're so very unnecessarily mercenary You're so very unnecessarily mercenary So very unnecessarily mercenary
You're so very unnecessarily mercenary You're so very unnecessarily mercenary
You're so very unnecessarily mercenary You're so very unnecessarily mercenary
You're so very unnecessarily mercenary
