

She Can't

Ashanti

First off I'm a say it like this
I don't care where she's doing 'cause I'm that, I'm that chick Ay I know I got what it takes Ain't never been the heirs chick, I'm a particular make
And I ain't tryin to be cocky with it
You gotta know how to pizazz, its your confidence
You gotta let him know what he got on his hands
And if he tend to forget better remind his ass
Yea, yea You told me you love me
You told me you care
You said there'll be no more mistakes
Yea, you said
You said you were sorry
It won't happen again
And you came runnin back
'Cause you know I got that oh
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no See we been through this a million times
Been through thick and thin and everything between the twines
Aye, said I've been holdin it down
You ain't gon find nobody built like me around
I will give you all the respect in the world
No need to keep me on a pedestal
And nobody never made you feel Like I make you feel, let's keep it real Yea, yea oh she cant do it like i do it how i do it i know she cant take it like i take it i how i take it i know she cant ride like i ride how i ride she aint got it like mine like mine like mine You told me you love me
You told me you care
You said there'll be no more mistakes

Yea, you said
You said you were sorry
It won't happen again
And you came runnin back
cause you know I got that oh
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no
