

Low All Afternoon

Martina McBride

Weeping willow don't cry on your pillow
It ain't just you he's letting down
You heard that she gave him an ultimatum
And she's wearing his ring now It's a hard pill to swallow
He's a hard act to follow
And there's no consultation prize
For the other women
Your the one he wouldn't commit to for more than tonight He's tying the knot and your tying one on
He got what he wanted from the one he didn't want
He's ready to settle down now that he's messed around with you
Weeping willow you gonna hang low all afternoon You should have known he didn't have the backbone
To come clean like he said he needed too
He'll make a house a home
Wasn't long ago he was going home with you He's tying the knot and your tying one on
He got what he wanted from the one he didn't want
He's ready to settle down now that he's messed around with you
Weeping willow you gonna hang low all afternoon Uh uh, ah ah ah, uh uh, ah ah ah
When he comes around
You won't be around
He ain't worth it now, he never was
Hold your head up high
You're better off 'cause He's tying the knot and your tying one on
He got what he wanted from the one he didn't want
He's ready to settle down now that he's messed around
He won't mess around with you
Weeping willow don't you hang low all afternoon Uh uh, ah ah ah, uh uh uh, ah ah ah

Songwriters

HAILEY FAITH WHITTERS Published by Lyrics © BLUEWATER MUSIC SERVICES

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>