

Vegas

Crocodile Mansion

Tonight we lie awake
Remember how the coffee made us shake
 On those long drives?
 One more long night
 Another seven days
Heartbeat racing the interstate, my home tonight
 For one more long night
I'm sure as hell the happiest I've ever been
 We can't hide, we let go
 We've got more than we know
My friends are a different breed
 My friends are
 There's a ghost in this room
 I think I'll name it after all of you
And watch it hang over my bed like decorations
 Celebrated memories that came and went
 In light of all that time we spent
Listening to everything our parents told us not to take in
 Now make a change, I'm counting down
 The mile marks to every town
 And falling more in love
 With the distance put between us
 We can't hide, we let go
 We've got more than we know
My friends are a different breed
 My friends are everything

 Make this last, take it slow
 We've got it all figured out for now
 So, let us live our lives without a doubt
 Tonight we lie awake
 Remember how the coffee made us shake
 On those long drives?
 One more long night
 Another seven days
Heartbeat racing the interstate, my home tonight
 For one more long night
 From coast to coast I'll make the most
Of every second I've been giving with this crowd

Without a doubt, you're all I dream about
At night we lie awake
With stories taking us back
To the nights we felt alive
The nights we felt alive
I would've married you in Vegas
Had you given me the chance to say, "I do"?
Couldn't make it anymore obvious, could you?
Be anymore obvious
I would've married you in Vegas
Had you given me the chance to say, "I do"?
Couldn't make it anymore obvious, could you?
Be anymore obvious, could you?
