Pretty Green Eyes

Lucas Prata

Pretty green eyes
So full of sparkle and such light
Let me remind
You chose not to cryIt's all right
For your lover has come home
By your side I'll always stay
Never have to be alone
Never have to be alone
You never have to be alonePretty green eyes
So full of wonder and despair
It's all right to cry
For I'll be there to wipe your tearsAnd in your arms
Together we're in paradise
And it's so nice
You'll never have to be aloneNever have to be alone
Never have to be alone
Never have to be alone
Never have to be alonePretty green eyes
So full of sparkle and such light
Let me remind
You chose not to cryIt's all right
For your lover has come home
By your side I'll always stay
Never have to be alone
Never have to be alone
Never have to be alonePretty green eyes
So full of wonder and despair
It's all right to cry
For i'll be there to wipe your tearsAnd in your arms
Together we're in paradise
And its so nice
You'll never have to be aloneNever have to be, never have to be
Never have to, never have to be alone
Never have to be, never have to be
Never have to, never have to be aloneNever have to be, never have to be
Never have to, never have to be alone
Never have to be, never have to be
Never have to, never have to be alone
