With Him

Babyface

So you never meant to hurt nobody
Well, I think you're full of it, yes
'Cause if you really, really
Didn't wanna hurt nobody
You wouldn't have slept with my best friend, baby
And I bring insult to my injury
You weren't a bit discrete
And while the world stood witness
To my embarrassment
You put a knife inside of me
How could you fall in love with him?
How could you give your heart to him?
Thought we'd grow old as lovers together 'til the end
How could you fall, fall in love with him?
And I know we've had our ups and downs
And that I do admit, yes

But sometimes lovers go astray
But you've made it permanent
Oh, I can't be that understanding, no
My heart's just not that big
No it ain't, no it ain't
And I can take the pain
Of infidelity
But I can't take you with him
How could you fall in love with him?
How could you give your heart to him?
Thought we'd grow old as lovers together 'til the end
How could you fall, fall in love with him?
Thought we'd grow old as lovers together 'til the end
How could you fall, fall in love with him?
