

Lie To Me

Daniel Powter

And you're discuss this good
You my blond
It's high very road
She has
She has never really stop
She begins and mammy address me I never like all fool fifty first
I've never go home
I should smile
We are good She said. Tell me once again why would you lie to me.
She said do me like you should why would you try for me.
From all the girls I knew where would you rather be.
Because I've got everything you want.
Take me back to yours cause that's the best I want Get address what address me in the moon
Because I've got everything before
Everything is fabulous without you Tell me once again why would you lie to me.
She said do me like you should why would you try for me.
From all the girls I knew where would you rather be.
Because I've got everything you want.
Take me back to yours What you take so wrong?
Take so wrong
Because I've got everything you need but you believe Tell me once again why would you lie to me.
She said do me like you should why would you try for me.
From all the girls I knew where would you rather be. Tell me once again why would you lie to me.
She said do me like you should why would you try for me.
From all the girls I knew where would you rather be.

Songwriters

POWTER Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>