Hey Rosetta!

Bring that summer on your shoulders bring that summer when i first saw you and that first kiss coming, lets just freeze the frame your blue eyes closing as mine were openingon into the gold river oh, but i was alone come winteroh stand in front of me open your eyes like you know meoh like you can see inside of me lay your healer's hands upon me and bring that summer sun see us stood akimbo, ever cavalier and cold raised on pixels - in they come, in they come. in they pour like poison all their lies and fantasy but i want your faults aley, i want the real thing!on into the gold river oh, where the rocks'll wreck you oh, but then the rocks'll save you the hands will help you upoh stand in front of me open your eyes like you know meoh see inside of me lay the heels of your hands upon me and let your fingers fall bless the broken bowl make it whole, make it better than it was before make it better than it was before!oh stand in front of me painted gold, coming on home and bring that summer
