

Dark Truths

Dianne Reeves

I've told some dark truths and I can't keep on lying
'Cause one day I'll find I'm not your heroIt's so nice that someone thinks you're special
Treat them right, that trust in you is precious
All the same we make mistakesI've used up a few lives now I'm afraid of dying
'Cause one day I'll find you're not forgivingIt's so nice there's someone to rely on Treat them right, that trust in you is precious
All the same, all the same we make mistakes
