Cup O' Tea

Don Williams

I don't wanna be the fiery sun
I just wanna be your candle honey
I just wanna be your candle baby
Let the sun shine on
I don't wanna be the deep blue sea
I just wanna be your cup 'o tea
I just wanna be your cup 'o tea
Let the sea rage on
Let the waves roll and pound
Let the sun burn the ground
Let this whole world roll around
I'll be happy to have your lovin'
I don't wanna be like a big freight train
I just wanna be your walking cane
I just wanna be your walking cane

You can lean on me
I don't wanna be like a bird in the air
I just wanna be your rocking chair
I just wanna be your rocking chair
Baby sit by me
Let the trains roll on by
Leave it up to the birds to fly
Long as you say you'll be mine
I'll be happy to have your lovin'
I don't wanna be like the deep blue sea
I just wanna be your cup 'o tea
I just wanna be your cup 'o tea
Let the sea rage on
