

Through the Glass Darkly

Annie Lennox

I'm caught up in the middle but Im taken to the end
Its coming back together and its breaking down again
If I can find a reason, Id say you were my friend
If I can find a reason, Id say it once again When Im with you the days are bittersweet
I still cant remember what it feels to be complete, yeah
Ive tried pretending but it drives me off my feet
I dont know what its coming to
But Im looking through the glass darkly
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, ooh, ooh, ooh Bright lights come and go, playing blue songs on my radio
Shadows still appear in the house tonight, ooh yeah
Ghosts have come in from the past
All those ghosts that keep on coming back
Sliding through the walls and my windows, ooh yeah When Im with you the nights are cold and long
I still cant remember what it feels like to be strong
Ive tried to blend in but it seems I dont belong
I dont know what its coming to
But Im looking through the glass darkly
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Can I find you?
Can I find you?
I cant find you, yeah, yeah
I cant find you Can I find you?
Can I find you?
I cant find you, yeah
I cant find you
Cant find you, ohh
