

Stories

Trapt

I found a line and then it grew
I found myself still thinking of you
And I felt so empty, now I'm fine
But still it's burning, when will you be mine? Too much of the same stories in our lives
I think it's time for a change, don't you?
Too much of the same stories in our lives
I think it's time for us to walk away from here Stories in our lives
We keep them more inside
Stories in our lives
We keep them more inside Look at me, still in your mind, our memories, so intertwined
You broke through, or you found your way
So did I, no need to stay and the same old picture, tried and true
I been through that, let's look for something new Too much of the same stories in our lives
I think it's time for a change, don't you?
Too much of the same stories in our lives
I think it's time for us to walk away from here Do you remember laying on the beach late at night?
Do you remember running through the sprinklers that night?
Do you remember all the songs that I have wrote for you?
All the songs that I have wrote for you, for you I remember the way you made me feel when I was with you
I remember a smile that always brought me back to you
That look in your eyes, I never thought that this could be untrue
That look in your eyes, I never thought that this could be untrue, untrue Do do la da da
Do do la da da
Do do la da da
Yeah yeah yeah Too much of the same stories in our lives
I think it's time to change, don't you?
Too much of the same stories in our lives
I think it's time for us to walk away from here
