After All

Linda Eder

The moon makes ribbons to surround you
Within the robe of dark around you, I see goodbye
A blade that cuts me from your eyes, I wonder whyIt's time for honesty and answers
Love is the song, we are the dancers
A broken pair, we spin alone
And wonder where the touch has goneAfter all this time
After all we've been through
Is this all that we have
No, we still have time
To find each other, after allI touch your face and feel you crying
Are all the words we've said been lies
We'll never leave the place where hearts
Alone receive what love believesAfter all this time
After all we've been through
Is this all that we have
No, we still have time
To find each other, after allWithin the deepest darkness
The seed of morning waits to grow
The sun will come, this much I knowAfter all this time
After all we've been through
If we hold on to love just one more night
We'll find forever, after allAfter all this time
After all we've been through
If we hold on to love, just one more night
We'll find forever, after allAfter all, after all, after all
