Rebound

Carl Thomas

What's the reason you are so sad
I don't think that I have seen you frown like that I thought that I made you smile
But I haven't seen you do that in a whileYou say he called you
And he said he loves you still
In your eyes I see you miss him
Did you bring me in your life to help you deal?Another night
Now I'm feeling down rebound
My heart can't help but frown rebound
There's enough to go around reboundYou know I love you you know I care
There is nothing I want more than to be there
The words I say come as a friend
'Cause it seems the world we share's about to endOh please be careful
Don't let your heart and mind stay at war
All the things that cause you pain
Well it seems they are all knocking at your doorAnother night
Now I'm feeling down rebound
My heart can't help but frown rebound
There's enough to go around reboundSo I guess I'll go
Pick up the pieces where they fall
After all I have found
The choice that I have left is to reboundAnother night
Now I'm feeling down rebound
My heart can't help but frown rebound
There's enough to go around reboundRebound, rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound
Rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound, oh
