Criteria

You should have called whether or not
You had the thought, you should have had itWhat's arrived upon us and spoke for themselves
Commitment like sawdust, it just gets swept up with trash
Irradiate my common sense, just in time to avert disaster
A revenue at your expense, my God, what have I done to you?You can't help but notice how long I have stared
Properly suggestive but I'm not prepared for any connection
To be made with you tonight, well, emotionally vacant
Yeah, I've heard that many times beforeAnd just because I don't know your pain
Doesn't mean I can't relate, it's just a suggestion
You don't have to take it to heart, now I can see
You raised the stakes, I call you out, I call you outWhat's arrived upon us and spoke for themselves
Commitment like sawdust, it just gets swept up with trash
Irradiate my common sense, just in time to avert disaster
