The End Complete IV: The Road and the Damned

Coheed and Cambria

I believe in the world right in front of me
But now along these empty streets
Where this curse holds these memories of a man
You know he's lostNo time to think about it
No room to breatheIf I had a way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait for me
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home againTonight you'll sleep
You'll feel what might become of me, my dear
Within these end old days where this longing turns
This man to pray and a love begins to dieNo time to live in the deep
Girl, I'm worth the second chance, what have I done?
No time to think about it
No room to breatheIf I had a way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home againI believed in the world once in front of me
Well, now that's goneIf I had the way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait for me
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home againIf I had the way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait for me
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home againBye, goodbye, bye, goodbye
Bye, goodbye, bye
Bye, goodbye, bye, goodbye
Bye, my dear

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/