Neon

Sponge Cola

Your smile is gently freezing
Snow throws it away
You?re the laughter in my silence
The crow that kips me awake

Green towel less soft spoken,
Thoughts u never knew.
The lies & empty promises
I gave them all 2 u..

How does it feel?
How is it that I can?t feel?
Coz I, I need to know
Coz I, I know I can never b enough.
To replace you?re what ever.

& I, I think it?s shiny and blue
Like a dance that c through
Coz I, I know I can never be enough
To replace you?re what ever.

Now every thing is silent,
Every thing is still without you near.
Every thing about you
The world was something new.

& I was there at the open
Well just to b with you.

But every time I see d shelter.
Every time I walk away.
Your d laughter in my silence
The cold that feeds my day.

How does it feel?
How is it that I can?t feel?
Coz I, need to know
Coz, I know I can never b enough.

To replace your whatever

& I, I think it?s shiny & blue.
Like a dance that see through
Coz I, I know I can never be enough

To replace your whatever
Now everything is silent
And everything is still without u near

And every time I see you passing by
I just stand here waiting for you.
And I will talk to myself what a lazy Sunday afternoon.
And I?ll still say that pray for you.

I?ll be your everything count on me
I?ll try to be so perfect you?ll see
But nothing can compare to you
?What ever lies out there?..

There?s no one here
There?s no one here
There?s no one here
There?s none here
There?s no one here
There?s no one here

THERE?S NO ONE HERE..
