

Okay

Lexi

I hear what you say 'bout me I honestly don't believe that I waste tears over your words it doesn't mean anything but somehow it still stings and oh my goodness - does it hurt what do you hope to gain? from making me feel this way? no - I won't break I won't let you bring me down I will trust in what I've found me, myself and I are OK pick me up and walk away I'm not afraid to cry sometimes cuz after the rain - the sun will shine with the sun comes a brand new day and me, myself and I are OK. So go on and talk it up but when it's all said and done I hope you feel better about yourself do what you gotta do I already know the truth it's not how you feel about me - it's how you feel about you I won't let you bring me down I will trust in what I've found
me, myself and I are OK
pick me up and walk away
I'm not afraid to cry sometimes
cuz after the rain - the sun will shine
with the sun comes a brand new day and me, myself and I are OK. yes - it hurts - but not the way you think it does I feel sorry that you need to tear me down to build you up and no -
I don't agree with what you have to say I won't let it break me down won't let you rain on my parade I won't let you bring me down I will trust in what I've found
me, myself and I are OK
pick me up and walk away
I'm not afraid to cry sometimes
cuz after the rain - the sun will shine
with the sun comes a brand new day and me, myself and I are OK.
