

Strange Face of Love

Tito & Tarantula

Let go of your love
Ride his pulse and you forget
Slow down your time will come
If not tonight surely by the dawn
Take it like a man...

The strange face of loveA cat?s eye a lizard?s tail

The pentagram he bought in hell
He stalks the night with no intent
His brow sweets for innocence
Take it like a man...

The strange face of loveDon?t look back, don?t look back

He?s right on your trail
Don?t look back, don?t look back
He?s just a step away from hell
Don?t look back, don?t look back

Into the strange face of loveThe rain?s soul makes kill and cry

He wants desperately to die
But fast and skillfully forgets
He?s back on the street with no regrets
Take it like a man...

He?s right on your trail
He?s just a step away from hell
Don?t look back, don?t look back
Into the strange face of love
