Affection (Instrumental)

Sango

Its every thing that you want it to be
Every thing that you need
But you cant understand it baby
Explain this to me, serious and crazy all of the time
Rising and faded at the day and night
Its hard for me cause its never an easy way
It takes all of me not to say what I want to say
Affection, affection, affection, affection,
Every thing that you thought it could be
Baby just what you need yeah
Maybe then you can show me to me
Maybe then we can breath
Serious and crazy all of the time
Rising and faded at the day and night
Its hard for me cause its never an easy way
It takes all of me not to say what I want to say
Affection, affection, affection, affection, affection, affection, affection, affection, affection, affection,
Its hard for me cause its never an easy way
It takes all of me not to say what I want to say
Affection, affection, affection, affection, affection, affection
Its hard for me cause its never an easy way
It takes all of me not to say what I want to say
