Kill You Dead

Rusted Root

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead like a 44
I say who, who, who's it gonna be
When you're dead on the floorThe poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead like a 44
Oh tell me where, where
Is the way to the doorThe poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along
The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get alongRoll, roll, my lady love
She don't want my love to go astray
Well I say who, who, who's it gonna be
When you have games to playI'm gettin' tired of this crazy bone
It's like suckin' blood from a stone
Well tell me where, where
Is the taste I used to knowThe poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along
The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along, to get alongI hope a day never goes by Without lookin' into those eyes
You're my love, my prayerThe poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead like a 44
I say who, who, who's it gonna be
When you're dead on the floorI'm tangled to the left, I'm tangled to the right
Your clumsy paws keep crossing my line
I guess our love began
Somewhere along these power linesThe poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along
The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get alongThe poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead, dead, deadWith a baby, with a
You're my clumsy dog baby, yeah
She want me, she [Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]You're my clumsy dog
[Incomprehensible]
