Hades

Kotebel

Beyond the mountains where the wind cries out its pain Deserted valleys where the darkness always reignedWhere the sunlight never ever touched the poisoned ground Where the laugh of undead children never ever soundForever wrapped in darkness the forgotten valleys of HadesForgotten damned domains where curse and hate collide Where the cold and darkness meet and the truth have turned to lieWhere the flame of love growls cold and its powers never rise And hand of death has grasped every form of lightForever wrapped in darkness the forgotten valleys of Hades
