

Final Massacre

Vader

Warriors with hate
Comes true, the awful prediction
Still alive, corpses lie in the street
Spitting the blood to the GodDying in flames, dammed mob
Screaming with pain, this can't be, ohh, God
Maybe, they will understand, he was never
But will be too late, so die, foreverCircling in the sky, the demons, now, descend
To raise their slaughter of mankind, till its end
The final massacre of people on the earth
Pain, cracks their minds, everywhere is deathFalse Gods in their temples, tremble with fear
They know the death is now, so near Unearthly Armageddon, burns with flames of doom
Poisoned seed, flung into virgin's wombCircling in the sky, the demons, now, descend
To raise their slaughter of mankind, till its end
The final massacre of people on the earth
Pain, cracks their minds, everywhere is deathMerciless angels fly overhead
It's no time for your imploring pleads
Commit suicide with horror in your eyes
Bleeding with scars, pride, world, now, diesWarriors with hate
Comes true, the awful prediction
Still alive, corpses lie in the street
Spitting the blood to the GodDying in flames, dammed mob
Screaming with pain, this can't be, ohh, God
Maybe, they will understand, he was never
But will be too late, so die, foreverDifferent Armageddon, came true, under our eyes
Dust comes down, when the time came for sunrise
The final massacre, winds destroy the earth
Impaled heads notify, that winner is the death
