

Broken Heart (feat. ABI)

Amir

Not before the day you said goodbye
Did I even know that I could cry
And how I have cried All those reckless games inside my mind
Leaving this tortured soul to find
Somewhere to hide
When I told you that
I loved you
I believed you felt
That way too Maybe I fell head over heels
Maybe I just got it all wrong
Oh, feeling hopeless not what I dreamed of
Maybe if you knew how it feels
Maybe you'd be singing this song
Where does my broken heart belong? Days are long and nights are filled with fear
I'm falling apart 'cause you're not here
And losing control All that's left of who I used to be You've taken it all away from me
I gave you my soul Maybe I fell head over heels
Maybe I just got it all wrong
Oh, feeling hopeless not what I dreamed of
Maybe if you knew how it feels
Maybe you'd be singing this song
Where does my broken heart belong? When I told you that
I loved you
I believed you felt
That way too
And I must find a new
Tomorrow
If I am to lose
This sorrow Maybe I fell head over heels
Maybe I just got it all wrong
Oh, feeling hopeless not what I dreamed of
Maybe if you knew how it feels
Maybe you'd be singing this song
Where does my broken heart belong? Maybe I fell head over heels
Maybe I just got it all wrong
Oh, feeling hopeless not what I dreamed of
Maybe if you knew how it feels
Maybe you'd be singing this song

Where does my broken heart belong? Maybe I fell head over heels

Maybe I just got it all wrong

Oh, feeling hopeless not what I dreamed of

Maybe if you knew how it feels

Maybe you'd be singing this song

Where does my broken heart belong?
