Find Love Again

Ash Gale

Did you find yourself nowhere?
Lost your sight did you think that you wouldnâ€™t care
In your hide out waiting to believe that Something will come your way
Tell yourself youâ€™re too late
Eyes ahead wonder where you go
A Broken home now youâ€™re all alone

So hold out and brace yourself
Watch it come for you
Like your something else
Watch it run to you

Find Love Again
What you had, what you know keep it close
Donâ€™t you ever let go
Find love again
What you had, what you lost will return
If thereâ€™s anything to learn

So this is not what you had in mind
As you see now what you left behind
Now you run through the fire
And push through the rain
Starting now to believe once again

So hold out and brace yourself
Watch it come for you
Like itâ€™s something else
Watch it run to you

Find Love Again
What you had, what you know keep it close
Donâ€™t you ever let go
Find love again
What you had, what you lost will return
If thereâ€™s anything to learn

Set your sights
Look at the view

Underneath these lights Iâ€™ll be next to you
Set your sights
Look at the view
Underneath these lights Iâ€™ll be next to you
Set your sights
Look at the view
Underneath these lights Iâ€™ll be next to you

Find Love Again
Find Love Again
Wonâ€™t you find love
Wonâ€™t you find love
